Why I enjoy being a Personal Assistant	I want to do something important in my life. Right now, I'm working in a factory. It's good but I need some exciting dialogues in life. I'm loving talking with another. I'm full of optimism. I like to talk with person's broken from life. I met it the past person's like that. Usually people's loving talking with me. I like to give for another's peace of happiness and hope.
