About Me:	I am a good-natured individual with a good sense of humour (I think). My hobbies include spending time with people close to me, gaming, reading and camping (although I'm not the best at camping!) I also enjoy a good game of chess.
Why I enjoy being a Personal Assistant	There are many things I enjoy about being a Personal Assistant. Firstly, I find the work very rewarding, I like to know that I am working to do something that matters, while making every effort to improve the lives of those I work with. I also enjoy meeting interesting people while at work and getting to know them more as I work with them.
